Giving Made Easy!

Our agencies and ministries are faces of hope to so many people during this pandemic. Your pledge or one time gift is a tangible way to be a 'face of Christ' to the world through your support of the agencies and ministries which rely on this appeal for the funding each year. And you, in turn, share in the joy of bringing hope into the lives of those we serve.

Text giving is hands down the easiest and most secure way to give. If you know how to send a text message, you can make a gift to Partners in Charity in seconds on your phone. Best yet, our parishes, St.Brigid and Our Lady of the Assumption, will receive credit.
Text donate to 84576. In addition to giving you can also view the 2022 appeal video. You can also make your gift online at partners-charity.net.
Gift envelopes are available in the pews and at the back of both churches.

Thank you for your continued support! We couldn't do it without you!

The Power of God - Unimaginable

The last of a series of meditations on John the Apostle and Disciple of Jesus Christ, in this Easter Season... Happy Easter!

It was now the morning of the first day of the week. The Sabbath was over, but it was nearing daybreak.

Sleep… that is something that I have not known since the night in the Garden. The early sun rays break through the eastern face of the upper loft. Two of the brothers left earlier today for their village on the other side of Emmaus. I prayed for their safe travel, and for the protector of the beloved to go with them. As I looked around the room I see Peter resting against the wall, he is awake too. I laid back on my mat looking at the beams that support the roof we are sleeping under. Lebanon cedar…

The sounds of the merchant activity fill the air. Above the snoring, and heavy breath of more than 30 men. I could hear the crackle of the rolling cart navigating the rocky road in front of the house so near the market square and the snorting of oxen and their cladding hooves. Focusing on these sounds keeps out the visions of Jesus hanging there.. Blood leaving His wounds flows like rivulets breaking new ground. The blood finds every channel made by lashes of cruel leather and iron and flows… and flows..

"What's that.. I think and sit up right… It is the rooster crowing over and over…"oh thank GD"... i thought it was a child's cry.

As my eyes scan the room I see that Peter scampers to his feet and pulling at his hair his face shows the distress of days of agony, his body heaves as he runs to the front room past all the brothers who had remained asleep, now roused by his hasty retreat. I chase after him. He is seated by the door to the upper room, his face in his hands and weeping.

John: "Peter… Peter…" I approach and his muscular left arm holds me away.
Peter: "Leave me…"
John: "Peter...what troubles you?"
Peter: "When we were taking the passover with the Lord, I pledged myself to Him, I would die for Him…Jesus looked at me with great compassion and love for me and said…"Amen, Amen I say to you, before the cock crows this very night you will deny me three times…" I told Him, never…And there I was following the guard to the courtyard and I spy Him. They have taken Him behind closed doors, that's where the Trial was at the House of Caiaphas. One after another of the council arrived, cloaked in darkness and in secret but for a few protesters who were thrown out by the guard. We waited in the cold of the night, and wanting to get closer I drew near the fire to hear the talk of the people. Many of the faces were familiar from the preaching in the city. They pointed me out and started pulling at me, I told them I do not know the man...Three times John… and the cock crowed. I saw Jesus turn to me and his eyes caught mine... as if to acknowledge that what He told me would come to pass…"

Now standing face to face he reached out with his strong hands and Peter clenched my arms...and continued…

"John...I denied the Master...and I cannot stop hearing the crow of that rooster in my mind… It does not…"

Peters words were interrupted by frantic pounding at the street door. And a woman's voice could be heard calling out "Simon… Simon...come at once… Simon."

Peter tore open the door we were standing by, and we chased down the stairs to the door as we approached the voice was clear.

"Its Magdalene…" I shouted to Peter. 'Open the door.."

Peter pulled the door and with it Magdalene, came falling into the doorway, in a frenzy… She was wild eyed and out of breath. Peter caught her and pulled her to her feet. Brushing the tears and dust from her face, holding her up and looking eye to eye. He spoke…

"Magdalene, what has happened, are you in harm? Tell me… Tell me…" Magdalene could barely catch her own breath to form words...Peter turned to me and said…"John fetch her some water quickly." I ran to the bucket by the door and drew a cup of water for Magdalene. Peter made her drink and helped her to catch her breath. "Ok now, Magdalene, tell me what happened."

"They have taken the Lord!..."

"WHAT! Said Peter…

"They have taken the Lord from His grave… I went with the oils to anoint His body, and the stone was rolled back, the seal was broken. The guard was gone...They took the Lord, He was not there…" before her voice could trail off. Peter broke through the door and began running. I chased after him. We needed no words. I could see the rage in his face. He ran and I ran faster. I told him I would wait for him at the tomb and ran ahead.

It was all a blur. We left the city and ran into the hills where Joseph dug his tomb. As I crested the hill I caught sight of the hillside, it was like what Magdalene had said. The massive stone that covered the opening of the tomb was pushed off to the side, up the slope that led to the cave. The guards night fire was smoldering in the dew of the morning all that was left of it was a small trail of smoke rising up against the hillside.

I stopped by the entrance of the cave and waited for Peter and caught my own breath. It was only a few short minutes before I could see Peter running up over the crest of the hill. He was not slowed by the ascent. He charged like a bear through the opening stopping at the ledge that held the scented burial cloth that was stained with His blood. I ran in after Peter and saw the cloth that covered His head, it was rolled up. Peter was speechless. He turned to me grabbing my arm with his powerful right hand… his face lost any trace of anger. And like Mother, something else dawned in him…"John, did he not say that in three days He would rise?" With those words we gathered the clothes and silently made our way back to the brothers. Is it true...Jesus, RISEN FROM THE DEAD…?
